We are excited to highlight GAC member, and chairman of the Georgia House Agriculture Committee, Rep. Tom McCall. After 26 years at the State Capitol representing his hometown of Elberton and House District 33, Chairman McCall will be retiring this year to pursue the Georgia Farm Bureau presidency. Tom and his wife, Jane, are full-time farmers with commodities ranging across the agriculture spectrum. Together they grow corn, wheat, hay and also raise beef cattle among other farm animals.

Chairman McCall was sworn into office on January 9, 1995, and has been a true advocate for Georgia agriculture. He has served as Chairman of the House Agriculture and Consumer Affairs Committee for 16 years. In that time, he has promoted and passed policies that help all agribusinesses in Georgia. Not only has Chairman McCall helped promote agriculture, he has also stopped legislation that would have been detrimental to its success, making him a true champion for Agriculture. By knowing the daily pressures that come in the Agriculture industry, it has enabled him to speak on behalf of producers across the state. Chairman McCall is loved by everyone he encounters and will be truly missed at our State Capitol.
